7/29 - I find it easier to relate with the 'insiders' rather than the puvelidged 'outsiders' which explains my outburst @ mekemas lack of empathy and self pity as she sits about in her corners while I have yet to see anything but restaurant, bathroom take shit off - made fun of by relatives, pass family job to stew and a table for girls she emails pics, sisters like disapointed but I dont feel guilty, Mak sees too much wondering my email she leaves. (#2) Riding in car w/ daniel, keep asking 'is she OK?' reminiscent of stopping near the water when someone asks mekema that and she says 'yes! I have my husband!' - back to deana - officer fears her job is being taken over I go into long convo on the state war of terror and police changes (#3) dad during RV as we both try to escape chasing bear oh yeah (#2) I shoot corrupt officer in butt after relieving her gun (a sep off from the one questioning wolfgang about danielle)
